MADISON COUNTY BORN AND RAISED SHOW

For the 12th year, the Madison County Born and Raised Class has been added to the 2016 Open Beef Show. The object is to recognize county youth for producing quality market and breeding projects. There is no charge for these classes, however participants need to declare their participation at time of check-in. This will follow showmanship during the Open Class Beef Show on Sunday, July 9, 2016, beginning at 4 p.m. An overall Champion Born and Raised Market Beef Animal, Champion Born and Raised Heifer, and Champion Born and Raised Feeder Calf will be selected. Various awards will be given to participants.

RULES GOVERNING SHOW:

1. All animals must be current 4-H or FFA projects entered at this year's fair and the animal must have been born and raised in Madison County.
2. Classes will be determined by show management.
3. For additional rules, please see the General Open Livestock Show Rules.

OVER THE HILL BEEF SHOWMANSHIP FUN SHOW

1. $20 entry fee
2. All proceeds benefit Madison County Junior Fair
3. Animals must be on a halter
4. Festive dress encouraged
